Gallows

Liz Green

This life starts with a heartbeat
Is it beat, beat, beat, beat, beating me down
Like the loser I am?
I can't help but to see
That success scares the living shit outta me
Like the loser I am
Every time I walk away
Every word I ever say
Restless, chasing shadows
Choices, facing gallows pole
Are you hanging by a thread
Or swinging from the rope?
Don't think we don't see your scars
Are you afraid of who you are?
Are you afraid of who you are?
Denial, a subtle burn
Is it burn, burn, burn, burn, burning me out
Or feeding the flames?
Spread out the ash, pretend to see
That you can still find some value in me
Or just feed the flames
Every time I walk away
Every word I'd ever say
Restless, chasing shadows
Choices, facing gallows pole
Are you hanging by a thread
Or swinging from the rope?
Don't think we don't see your scars
Are you afraid of who you are?
Oh my God, what am I afraid of Success or not having what it takes?
Oh my God, I am afraid of me
And everything that brings
Restless, chasing shadows
Choices, facing gallows pole
Are you hanging by a thread
Or swinging from the rope?
Don't think we don't see your scars
Are you afraid of who you are?

Afraid of who you are
Are you afraid of who you are?
