

What's My Name (Live Show No. 47/2011)

Henrik Freischlader Band

Yes I was down, definitely, 'cause she didn't give a try to me and yes I cried, wondering why but then came the day I dried my eyes I was thinking: hey man what can you do if it ain't that love waiting for you so I got back a time when it was all mine and love was the most overrated crime What's my motherfucking name
So I was alone, checking my phone, fivehundred girls hanging on I looked through the names, started with A, curious about what they gonna say so many cute â€šshe's" I haven't seen since they had the time of their lives with me so I was just cool, breaking the rule of always thinking just about me What's my motherfucking name
Free as a bird I was travelling 'round the world I did see a lot of places lighted with so many faces and I gave myself away yes I played and played and played now this idea got me back here, Fivehundred nights took me just one year without any money, so much honey, the damn dark sky was again so sunny and yes I'm smooth back in the groove, so many things keeping me amused And it ain't no shame knowing my motherfucking name If you know how to play the game people
What's my motherfucking name.
