

Which Side I'm On

Blind Pilot

Even the robin that cuts the dawn
Even his sound knows which side he's on Nothing that stays where it has been
In the black
The light is a candle on my screen
Flickers the real of this same old dream
Holding me in this middle mood Looking back
I won't let it drink me down
Like a secret
I won't give in any more
Than I've given
No matter how I worked hard enough
I'm still gonna to drink from that broken cup
Yeah, It knows which side I'm on I have done wrong,
I've done wrong
I've done wrong
That weight will follow me
But that wait is the worst
The world's not mine
It is the place where I am
And I have lost I have lost
I have lost
That won't let go of me
That story's not me
It's just who I can't change
And not who I can
I don't see the desert for it's sand
I don't see the waterfall dry land
All that I love has turned to fuel
For the fire It's gonna burn me with its touch
It's gonna fill my love and cut
It knows which side I'm on
I have done wrong,
I've done wrong
I've done wrong
That weight will follow me But that wait is the worst
The world's not mine
It is the place where I am
And I have lost

I have lost
I have lost
That won't let go of me
That story's not me
It's just who I can't change And not who I can
That story's not me
And not who I can
No tthat story's not me
And not who I am
Oh oh
It keeps me from
Oh oh
It keeps me from
Oh oh
