

Brilliateen

Heartsrevolution

You like to make believe that you're invincible

You want to make me feel like I'm invisible

I owe you nothing

I owe you nothingBrilliateenYou try to make me feel like I'm invisible

It's just to make you feel that, that you're invincible

Situation critical, the situation's criticalHere we go what a sweet sensation

Calling out to the daydream nation

You think you think you know I know

Caught in the middle of a joke

Suffering with this need to find out

Holy smokes!

It's a shit show wipeout

A healthy dose of sickness

That's your daily weakness

Everybody seems to want to talk change

The less we do well the more it stays the same

No pointing fingers, not trying to pass blame

Redirect the light, just trying to change the game

I don't wanna he don't wanna we don't wanna she don't wanna you don't wanna we don't wanna

Don't you steal my peanut butterI owe you nothing

The world is in danger

I owe you

Give it to me nice and clean a double dose of brilliateen

Run your mouth until you say something clever

Promise me today and I'll promise you forever

It girl, shit girl, what a stupid bitch girl

Don't you want to rep more than your clothes who you know?

Motherfucker titty sucker two balled bitch

You got a ping pong pussy like a son of a bitch

You got a real mean streak, it's a matter of fact

It's a cruel cruel world unless we step back

Spit venom straight out your mouth

And it rots your teeth while it robs your health

Kills your heart and it kills your wealth

All I see is you're not yourselfWe'd better leave this place better than we found it or

Our kids will feel the fate there's no doubt about it no

You cannot leave it up to me and me aloneCelebrity obsession

Society's oppression

Always on the hunt to find and possess that perfection

B roll it's a vicious circle
I'm not your supporting cast

You know this shit will never last and on and on and on...Give it to me nice and clean a double dose of brillianteen

The world is in danger
But I'm here to save you

Here you have your a, b, c's of all the dangers of disease
