

Stone Me into the Groove

Atomic Swing

I woke up and the sun was dressed in blue the Panavision colours ran out of my room I want to paint them where ever you go
I want to thrill you but I want it slow
I want to fly in the room of your arms
I want to enjoy all of your charmsSo just stone me into the groove You're making everything beautiful and I think it's wonderful Stone me into the groove
I want to go!Oh, my saviour, my friend, just take me away from tonight and into today Just take me out on a carpet ride into a place where I mustn't hide 'cause I'm bored of the ancient truth I'm a car crash in the blueSo just stone me into the grooveJust name a place where I would not got 'cause I want to fly, love, move, cry fly, love everything that you doSo just stone me itno the groove
