

Together in Solitude

Celestial Season

[Lyrics: Stefan]together in solitude there are no moments of pleasure... minds filled with sorrow not one second of joy dreams are out of mind deep gloom has made you blind dreams are out of sight I cannot make that right being alone with your emotions your howling. who will hear it ?
the agony of love...
pain the ultimate pleasure is that what he has promised ?
in darkness
you searched for light paralysed by strangling fright
