Work It Out

En Vogue

You know I got a thang for you
I know you got a thang for me too
So tell me, baby,
What's it gonna be?
Here we are, alone again
Just like before
We had a chance for romance, baby
And now it's slipping out our hands, baby
Oh, well, sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this here's not enough, we need changes
Sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this shh getting old
Love is gone
Who's gonna be the first to say goodbye?
How do we choose
When we have so much to lose?
Start by stop pretending nothing is wrong
Just admit this is it so we can move on
'Cuz I can't go on living my life this way
Day after day
Just sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this here's not enough, we need changes
Sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this shh getting old
We could be living
Like my dream fantasies
Where you hold me in your arms
And kiss me so softly
My thoughts would be always of you
And the kind and gentle things you do, yeah
But reality pulls me out of my mind

And instead I find that I'm still
Sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this here's not enough, we need changes
Sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this shh getting old
I know that we're sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this whole mess, 'cuz this whole mess
Is getting old, we need changes
Sitting here
Ain't got much to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this shh getting old
I'm just sitting here
I ain't got a lot to talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
It's getting old, it's getting very, very old
We need changes
Sitting here
Talk about
What we gonna do to work it out?
'Cuz this shh getting old
