Maladine

Flowing Tears

burn your eyes in me save your breath for the set of dawn will we ever leave?close your eyes to see never trust! they would kill the first Lucifer releasedMaladine you hold the stars we always dreamt of
never leave
you are the salt in every teardrop and when the sky is hurt, but there's no pain say will you leave me?dead inside and free stand and wait for your miracle sell your miserysleep in your belief swallow dust!
would you raise a word?
Lucifer deceivedMaladine
never leave
say will you leave me?
