

Lost in the Twilight

Fenrir

In the fortress of oblivion
Knights buried all so they live
An upty dome at the country zone
I'm enjoying bloody rings

The times off and the years have passed
Since the prisoner was chilled
On the tower we was of glass
All the mightys charm that failed

Easy to down its understand
We'll founded not all that get real

Out of the world, a silent devotion
Out of the world, there is a deception
Lost in the twilight, the skylar horizon
Lost in the twilight, our destiny's will dread up show

Easy to down its understand
We'll founded not all that get real

Out of the world, a silent devotion
Out of the world, there is a deception
Lost in the twilight, the skylar horizon
Lost in the twilight, our destiny's will dread up...

She's my lead and will wake me no more
Don't be undust, there is no time in this prison
Lost, he is lost in this leathery home
Under the rose, show mercy an interest in peace

Out of my heart, your love is haunting me everyday
A country maid so long, let have your sight
Out of my heart, your love is killing me everyday
I will remain alone in the twilight
