Dad's Old Number

Cole Swindell

Verse 1 :I'm sorry mam', don't hang up
No, I ain't selling nothing
I don't know what I was thinking when I called
I guess I wouldYeah I was just XXX
Having some trouble with this old truck
And the guy that used to pick up, he could fix anythingChorus :
Sometimes I forget these ten day XXX My lifeline anymore
Every now and then, I doubt when XXX
When life get's tough
Sorry for the one rings hang ups
Early morning and late night wake ups
It was just me, in case you wonder, you've got dad's old numberVerse 2 :I learned it by heart, when I was 6
He never did change it
I've called it in trouble for good and bad news
And break up share you name it
Sure, I've got some friends I can call
They're always there if I need to talk
But good as you're are XXX sometimes I just need himChorusVerse 3 :
So I apologize in advance
Cause there's a damn good chance
When I meet that girl, get that job
And I need to tell my best friend
You're probably gonna here from me againChorus
