

This Is Love

Lari White

This is love, this is love, this is love, hey
Welcome to the danger zone
And the wildest ride that you've ever known
Blind curves up ahead
Baby, hold on tight, put your seatbelt on It's what you're looking for, it's what you're running from Where logic fails and reason comes undone
Baby, here's the deal
It's a hand of steel in a velvet glove
This is love, this is love
Are you ready? Are you tough enough?
Hey, this is love
And this is where we dig down deep
For that buried treasure, it don't come cheap
We've shared the taste of the sweetest wine
Now we're laying our hearts down on the line
There's a seventh Heaven in your eyes
I want it all, no compromise
Baby, you and me, this is where we see
Just what we're made of
This is love, this is love
And it's bigger than the both of us
Hey, this is love
It makes you laugh, it makes you cry
Lays you low and makes you high
But we'll keep falling, falling
Till we rise above
This is love, this is love, this is love
This is love, this is love
And it's bigger than the both of us
This is love, this is love
Are you ready? Are you tough enough?
Hey, this is, hey, this is love
Oh, oh, oh, oh
