Run Away (Album Version)

Staind

I'm still scared
Afraid of failing, anticipating
The ride to end
Before the wheels begin to moveRun away, so I can hide
Run away, I've mastered feeling nothing
Run away, I'm dead inside
Run away, why don't I care?Waste my time
Commiserating, self medicating
It's my design
Although I know you don't approveRun away, so I can hide
Run away, I've mastered feeling nothing
Run away, I'm dead inside
Run away, why don't I care?The truth is that I'm not so good
At showing how I feel or keeping my mouth shut
When there's something to conceal, knowing how to love
Love's not in my memories, how can I rise above all my insecuritiesRun away, so I can hide
Run away, I've mastered feeling nothing
Run away, I'm dead inside
Run away, why don't I care?Run away, I fight the tide
Run away, the ebb and flow consuming
Run away, still by my side
Run away, why should you care?
