Join the Club

Lustra

When ladyâ€™s feeling down,
The tax-man comes around,
Heâ€™ll every set you make,
Iâ€™m here to drag you out,
Iâ€™m rain to end your drought,
I met your office rage,
By acting half your age,

At last the weatherâ€™s getting nice,
My drinking buddies called me up,
Got 30 beers for half the price,
You wanna kick it?
Join the Club!

The dizziest take the fall,
They gave themselves to save a song,
And Iâ€™ll be the first one down,
With this sleeping town,

At last the weatherâ€™s getting nice,
My girl from college called me up,
Sheâ€™s all I need and half my life,
You got a ticket?
Join the Club!

Sunlight is gonna feed my soul,
Take me out and it feeds on coal,
Been inside for way too long,
When the sun is gone,
And Iâ€™m all alone,
Thereâ€™s nothing left to lose,
Thereâ€™s something I got to do,

At last the weatherâ€™s getting nice,
My drinking buddies called me up,
Got 30 beers for half the price,
You wanna kick it?
Join the Club?
You wanna kick it?
Join the Club!

You wanna kick it?
Join the Club!
