My Commitment

The Mongoloids

My commitment, my commitment is to live to love you
I will hold you, I will show you
You can put your faith in me
All of my life I'll be all that you need
You say you need two arms to hold you
You say you need a touch that's strong
All, all, all I can give you is love to last a lifetime long
Hear what I'm saying baby
My commitment, my commitment, my commitment to you
My commitment, my commitment is to live to love you
I will hold you, I will show you
You can put your faith in me
All of my life I'll be all that you need
I'll dry each tear, each time you cry, baby
I'll love you from the heart, yes I will
I'll, I'll, I'll never leave you
Forever you'll be safe within these arms
Don't you hear what I'm saying
My commitment, my commitment, my commitment to you
My commitment, my commitment is to live to love you
I will hold you, I will show you
You can put your faith in me
All of my life, I'll be all that you need
All of my life, I'll be all that you need
I'll give you strength, I'll give you faith
I'll give you all of me
This time this love won't let you down
This time you can believe in me
Let my love be the answer to your questions
In your heart
Look in your soul and see you'll see that I'll be
All, all, all, that you need
All, all, all, that you need
I will hold you, I will show you
You could put your faith in me
All of my life, I'll be all that you need
My commitment, my commitment, my commitment to you
My commitment, my commitment is to live to love you
I will hold you, I will show you

You can put your faith in me
All of my life, I'll be all that you need
My commitment, my commitment, my commitment to you
My commitment, my commitment is to live to love you
I will hold you, I will show you
You can put your faith in me
All of my life, I'll be all that you need
All of my life, I'll be all that you need
All of my life, I'll be all, I'll be all that you need
