

Repent and Repeat

Mayday Parade

Oh no, I think I did it once again
And will they find me out?
This time's no different than the last
If I can just rewind the time it takes to undo all I've changed
I could bring her back again
and through her eyes I'd see the light
And oh, there's a plan for me I've seen it before
Through the crack of an unlocked door
Just a glimpse but I saw it still
I couldn't tell you there's not much to go off of
And please, if you don't want me to stay
Then there's nothing left to say
I promise I'll go back again and make things right this time
And if you believe in me, then stand and fight
Stay a while, and try to analyze my brain
Prescribe me all the pills you say
Will help forget mistakes I've made
I could bring her back again
and through her eyes I'd see the light
And oh, there's a plan for me I've seen it before
Through the crack of an unlocked door
Just a glimpse but I saw it still
I couldn't tell you there's not much to go off of
And please, if you don't want me to stay
I promise I'll go back again and make things right this time
And if you believe in me, then stand
And fight a way, make it through okay
All your happy days are gone
And all I'm saying is You're not ready, you're not ready yet
Oh, there's a plan for me I've seen it before (before)
Through the crack of an unlocked door (locked door)
Just a glimpse but I saw it again
I couldn't tell you there's not much to go off of
And please, if you don't want me to stay
I promise I'll go back again and make things right this time
And if you believe in me, then stand and fight
