

M.C. Baby

Hanoi Rocks

Well, my baby is hot, I mean the way she rocks
Gives her old folks a shockThe way she burns her wheels down her hometown street
My my my, my my my, my my my little motorcycle babyMy baby is mean, she's the fastest chic that I've never seen
Though she's only sixteen, she knows
How to use her machine and she's so meanShe's sweet sixteen a leather queen you should See her streakin' down the streetAll the boys are jealous but they don't dare to tell it to My my my, my my my, my my my little motorcycle babyOn a Saturday night she goes out for a fight
And she beats them black and blue
I don't mean she's cool but she's so cruel
And she's no foolNo one can stop her and no one can rock like
My little motorcycle baby, my little motorcycle baby
My little motorcycle baby, my little motorcycle baby
My little motorcycle baby, baby, baby, baby
Drive on, drive onCould've given her time, the best years of my life
Wanna give her everything money can buy
Could've given her love and a whole lotta more
Could've given her everything mommy can buyMy baby is hot, I mean the way she rocks
Gives her old folks a shockThe way she burns her wheels down her hometown street
My my my, my my my, my my my little motorcycle babyMy little motorcycle baby, my little motorcycle baby
My little motorcycle baby, my little motorcycle, oh, my baby
My baby, my baby
