Broken Mirror

Travis

Each time you go away
Part of you turns to gray
The jingle of the chains
Singled, rearrangeBroken mirror steal my reflection
Tell me what you see
A hundred shattered eyes in the
Looking glass staring back at meInside, inside
Inside tolls the bell
Outside all is wellBroken mirror steal my reflection
Tell me what you see
A hundred shattered eyes in the
Looking glass staring back at meI never wanna be alone
I never ever wanna go home
This I know for sure
