Crying

Clay Aiken

I was alright for a while I could smile for a while But I saw you last night You held my hand so tight As you stopped to say helloYou wished me well You couldn't tellThat I'd been crying over you Crying over you and you said, "So long" And left me standing all alone Alone and crying, crying, crying, cryingIt's hard to understand That the touch of your hand Can start me cryingI thought that I was over you But it's true, oh, so true I love you even more than I did before But, darling, what can I do?You don't love me And I'll always beCrying over you, crying over you Yes, now, now that you're gone And from this moment on I'll be crying, crying, crying, crying, crying, crying, crying, crying, crying You left me crying, crying, crying Crying, crying, crying alone and crying
