

This Christmas, All I Need Is You

Denver & the Mile High Orchestra

I donâ€™t need snow to fall
Cover us all in a blanket of white
Donâ€™t need sleigh bells to ring
Or carolers sing their songs in the night
Department store Santas and Holiday guides
Can offer the world, but is that such a price?
Every December, on my Christmas list
Thereâ€™s only one thing
My heart canâ€™t resist

My one desire is still your love
To hold your heart is thrill enough
To draw you close and hear you say
Youâ€™re mine is still a dream come true.
So this Christmas, like every Christmas,
This Christmas all I need is you.
This Christmas, like every Christmas,
This Christmas all I need is you.

If it gives you bliss to buy me a gift
You can shop every aisle
But you wonâ€™t find a thing
That could ever, ever bring more joy than your smile
No trinket, no treasure of silver or gold
Could ever replace what I already hold
Next to you, no gift could compare
Thatâ€™s why I only have one yuletide prayer

My one desire is still your love
To hold your heart is thrill enough
To draw you close and hear you say
Youâ€™re mine is still a dream come true
So this Christmas, like every Christmas,
This Christmas all I need is you.
This Christmas, like every Christmas, baby,
This Christmas all I need is you.

Nothing else that I want
So donâ€™t you fill my stocking with presents galore
With you by my side

My heartâ€™s satisfied
How could I ask for more?

My one desire is still your love
To hold your heart is thrill enough
To draw you close and hear you say
Youâ€™re mine is still a dream come true
So this Christmas, like every Christmas,
This Christmas all I need is you.
This Christmas, like every Christmas, baby,
This Christmas all I need is you.
