

Holy War

Brooks & Dunn

Some say a holy war is comin'
Gonna be the end of mortal man
There's a TV preacher sayin'
Armageddon is at hand
Sayin' the Jews, the gays, the junkies
The politicians, the infidels
Have conjured up the devil
Upon wide the gates of HellI turn on the TV
Lord, I can't believe my eyes
Oh, terror walks the streets
While a million mothers cry
Christians pray to Jesus
Lord help us if You can
Send Gabriel and His legions
To defend His promised landThey say a holy war is comin'
Gonna be the end of mortal man
There's a TV preacher sayin'
Armageddon is at hand
Sayin' the Jews, the gays, the junkies
The politicians, the infidels
Have conjured up the devil
Upon wide the gates of HellAll its prophets lead
While the blind sheep they follow
The path to damnation
With no future, no tomorrow
Justice she may be blind
Tall and proud she marches on
Judgment day is coming
God himself wrote that in stoneThey say a holy war is comin'
Gonna be the end of mortal man
There's a TV preacher sayin'
Armageddon is at handHoly war
Holy warThey said fire rained down from Heaven
On the towers of Babylon
Oh, the innocent, the sinners
They all died as one
Now victory will be mine
All feeble and good say
But in the end and in its own time

Righteousness will have its day
They say a holy war is comin'
Gonna be the end of mortal man
There's a TV preacher sayin'
Armageddon is at hand
They say the Jews, the gays, the junkies
The politicians, the infidels
Have conjured up the devil
Upon wide the gates of Hell
They say a holy war is comin'
Gonna be the end of mortal man
There's a TV preacher sayin'
Armageddon is at hand
They say the Jews, the gays, the junkies
The politicians, the infidels
Have conjured up the devil
Upon wide the gates of Hell
Holy war
Holy war
