Where She Runs

Rusted Root

Where she Runs
Where she Runs to now
Where she Runs
Where she Runs to feel
Where she Runs
Where she runs nobody seems to mind
Nobody
Nobody told me No one told me it was her
No one told me No one told me I could see her
Where she runs no one told me but her
Well see her feel her
See her feel her Where she runs to now
Where she feels to now
Where she runs to now
Where she feels
Where she feels to now

Never have I learned to love her before X2
Never have I seen her
Where she runs
It's a simple thing simple thing well to love once again to love
Although it feels like never like this before
Come and feel your hands on my side
Although it feels like never like this before
Wash your hands on the crystal shore
It's a simple thing
Although it feels never like this before
Where she runs
