

The Beach

Age of Consent

Alive,
The world comes into life.
I feel you move, no sound.
Two planets, we collide,
You pushed and pulled me down.
Searching for changes,
Under the pavements,
We only find the beach.

But just like the sea,
Flows out form shore,
I don't need your love,
Anymore.

I've never felt,
This way before.
Now I know,
It's because of you,
Night and day,
I see your face.
Now it's over,
All because of you.

We walk hand-in-hand,
Above silken sands,
Hand-in-hand.
Then I awake,
Hiding my face,
Bearing a mask that you never knew.
Spelling my life out,
So I can find a,
Feeling of status in yours.

But just like the sea,
Flows out from shore,
I don't need your love,
Anymore.

I've never felt,
This way before.

Now I know,
It's because of you,
Night and day,
I see your face.
Now it's over,
All because of you.

How does it feel to be lonely?
How does it feel to be alone?

I'm glad you left me behind,
Now I've got my life together,
I'm feeling so much better alone x2

I've never felt,
This way before.
Now I know,
It's because of you,
Night and day,
I see your face.
Now it's over,
All because of you.

How does it feel to be lonely?
How does it feel to be alone? x2
