

Search 4 The Lyte

Mc Lyte

Within the depths of this infinite community
Emerges LyteOne by one they fall in the darkness
I'm glad that I could take part in this
And I'm hoping that you just might
Get together and search 4 the LyteFinding the Lyte means happiness
It's the best and nothing less
So I'm waiting at the end of a tunnel
Where happiness comes in bundlesBut it takes time to get to the Lyte
To get in the Lyte, to be with the Lyte
And I'm hoping, that you just might
Get together and search 4 the LyteHow you get there is the question
Honesty is my suggestion
But first you must be awakened
If you say you are, you're fakingOne who has seen the Lyte doesn't have to prove That they've been moved
They just let it be, let it rest
For that is the mental testWithin this, there's so much happiness
Sort of like lasting moments of bliss
Everyone wants to be so happy
Let me explain my theorySome type of grief you must experience
In order to appreciate happiness
Cause if you are always satisfied
Life will just pass by, you would've never triedTo get to the Lyte, to get in the Lyte
To be with the Lyte, to go see the Lyte
And I'm hoping, that you just might
Get together and search 4 the LyteIf you are not ready the Lyte can be blinding
And not worth finding
So for this you must prepare
Stay awake, wake up, stay awareThere are so, many distractions
Those that see the Lyte, just a fraction
Those that don't, remain blinded
The Lyte is there, they can't find itOne by one they fall in the darkness
And it's sad, to take part in this
But I'm hoping, that you just might
Get together and search 4 the LyteNow finding the Lyte is what's so difficult
And you can bet, that the results are Splendorous, wonderful, yeah
What wouldn't you do?'Cause once you've seen the Lyte, been with the Lyte
Got to the Lyte, got in the Lyte

I know that you just might
Never ever wanna leave the Lyte
