

The Courtyard

LOLO

I wish the apartment faced the courtyard
But the garbage truck is better than an alarm
My Hello Kitty heart can't believe the year is over
I didn't call my mother and say goodnight
And I had a dream that she was yelling at me
Can't you drink less and find your soulmate?
Like it's so easyHallelujah, hallelujah
Mama I'm trying to figure it out
Oh, when I go, I don't want no tears at all
Every song we sing is gonna last foreverI've committed myself to so many
And their special desires while having mine ignored
And they ask me when I'm gonna stop all this traveling
We lived like we would live forever
Raise a glass up to each other
But the music came before you so don't make me choose
Cause I won't choose youHallelujah, hallelujah
Mama I'm trying to figure it out
Oh, when I go, I don't want no tears at all
Every song we sing is gonna last forever
Hallelujah, hallelujah
Mama I'm trying to figure it out
Oh, when I go, I don't want no tears at all
Every song we sing is gonna last forever
