

Break

Selah Sue

How long will it take, before I make the big mistake and, how long will it take before my eyes speak out the truth how hard will I break, when all the roles can't understand and thoughts are running out of it How hard will I fall, when I can't deal with this at all its getting darker break my wall but no one gets my point at all at all
at all How long will it take, before the mask falls off it's fake And how long will it take before my eyes speak out the truth How hard will I break
When all the roles can't understand
And thoughts are running out of it
And how hard will I fall
When I can't deal with this at all
it's getting darker break my wall but no one gets my point at all At all
at all
at all
