Beautiful And Strange

Shannon McNally

I've got a splitting headache you ask me for nothing I'm on my wagon rolling like a freight train another darkest day only 10 hours away gotta new brew swimming beaten by the bottle (chorus)
so beautiful and soo strange scatter all the pieces the puzzle will remain the same so hideious so deranged crawlin through the tunnel lost inside the maze Tremble like an earthquake That shifts inside me
The crucifix im dragging They'll do the hard way They wont forget me
The walls are bloodstained

As my will unravels Broken like a bottle
(chorus)
happy little pebbles lost inside the pitts and space so hideous so deranged winding through the tunnels lost inside of lost inside of me
lost inside of me
you stole the matches you lit the fuse you let the boiler swell I tie the noose on you
Chorus:
sooo beautiful you are beautiful and soo strange but not as strange as me soo idiot like a force inside me soo deranged locked inside my cage lost inside of me lost inside of locked inside of me lost inside of
