

Back from the Dawn

Heavens Gate

[Music: Rettke/Paeth/Hunecke - Words: Rettke] It's a long time ago when you had the feelin' to adore her

Did you know, did you know that it's a lie?

She was spreading into your life and tellin' she would love ya

Did you know it's cuttin' like a knife? [BRIDGE:]

Every single touch, every word of mouth

now you know that she's been fakin'

All the dirty lies turned you inside out

Now it's up to you for breaking away [CHORUS:]

Breaking the chain

Get away, she's back from the dawn

You're feeling the pain

Watch out! Now she's back from the dawn In a world of shattered dreams

You're trying to protect

Did you know she utilized your care? [BRIDGE / CHORUS] Foolish behavior is piercing my brain

Don't know the difference of pleasure and pain There's no bed of roses

Just a bed of nails

No sense of security in a love that never fails [Repeat 1st verse / BRIDGE / CHORUS]
