

Dressed All in Black

Rise of the Northstar

Twenty fourteen mother fucker
Rise of The Northstar's Play Off
You now the deal, the real deal

Back to back, all Dressed In Black This color is my choice, good projection of my troubled heart

May heaven keeps me safe from war but,
After what I'm gonna give you peace'll be on the floor
I really don't give a fuck
About who's the King, who's shot my man with a puck
But touch one of us, you hit all the team

(And) The response'll be magnified It's gonna be extreme No matter What they say, What they do, We walk,
Dressed All In Black

This jacket has a sense covering my skin, Dressed All In Black
Saiyans reborn today they smash the flock, Dressed All In Black
'Cause the reason stops where the hate begins, Dressed All In Black
ALL BLACK Shut your mother fucking mouth

You rep' for me, the Star of the South
Not so far from my life concepts " "

Turn your back on your values I'll become the knife Like in a Shonen I'm getting stronger,
Your words go around in circles my rhymes get better
Always remember, again and again

I wanna learn from my defeat and kill da beast with my head No matter What they say, What they do, We walk,
Dressed All In Black

This jacket has a sense covering my skin, Dressed All In Black
Saiyans reborn today they smash the flock, Dressed All In Black
'Cause the reason stops where the hate begins, Dressed All In Black "Sonic Boom"
No matter What they say, What they do, We walk, Dressed All In Black

This jacket has a sense covering my skin, Dressed All In Black
Saiyans reborn today they smash the flock, Dressed All In Black
'Cause the reason stops where the hate begins, Dressed All In Black
