Sit & Listen to the Rain

Whiskeytown

Sit around, dream away the place I'm from
Used to feel so much now I just feel numb
Could go out tonight but I ain't sure what for
Call a friend or two I don't know anymoreSit and listen to the rain
Sit and listen to the rainGonna ride down to the river where it runs
Gonna watch TV and pray for decent reruns
Sit around and dream away what I've become
Used to feel so much now I just feel dumbSit and listen to the rain
Sit and listen to the rainI'll never understand this emptiness
I'll never really try to understand, I guess
I'll never understand this emptiness
I'll never really try and understand
Try and understand, I guessSit around, dream away the place I'm from
Used to feel so much now I just feel dumb
Could go out tonight but I aint sure what for
Call a friend or two I dont know anymoreSit and listen to the rain
Sit and listen to the rain
