

Rainy Day Woman

Kat Edmonson

You string me along.
My friends say it wrong.
They tell me I'm crazy.
I'm reading the cards and asking the stars.
The outlook is hazy.
Oh, never mind the weather.
Oh, as long as we're together you say, "Why do you run away and save me for a rainy day."
I'm tired of the fight.
I turn out my light.
You know I'm not sleeping.
I'm walking the line.
I just need a sign.
You call me up weeping.
Oh, never mind the weather.
Oh, as long as we're together you say, "Why do you run away and save me for a rainy day."
You won't say yes.
I can't say no.
And that makes me crazy.
You never say "stay".
I never can go away from you, baby.
Oh, never mind the weather.
Oh, as long as we're together you say, "No one ever loved you. No one ever loved you. No one ever loved you,
not the way that I do."
