

Born To Run (Ragged Glory outtake)

Neil Young

I see the light of a thousand lamps burning in your eyes Still I have to turn away for you to stay alive'Cause I was born to run
I was born to run
I was born to run
I was born to run run runSecurity had a hold on me
I had a thousand friends
But reality wasn't told to me
And I found out in the end'Cause I was born to run
I was born to run
I was born to run
I was born to run run run
