

Had Enough of You Today

Blackie & The Rodeo Kings

Im ugly, Im lazy
Im always there to take the blame
Im a drag but youll never find out
Just push me around and Ill walk away, walk awayIm a genius, I cant get straight
Theres supernatural in my hair
Space invaders all around me
Freak me out when I get down thereIm getting lost before I get found out
Im getting old before my time and its too lateSo shut up, Ill give up when I want to
Just shut up, Im not listening to you
Say anything cause it dont mean nothing
Ive had enough of you today
Ive had enough of you todayNow dont try me, Im so turned on Im in the game to break some eggs
Im not a loser, Im a time bomb
A superstar that always gets his wayIm getting lost before I get found out
Im getting old before my time and its too lateSo shut up, Ill give up when I want to
Just shut up, Im not listening to you
Say anything cause it dont mean nothing
Ive had enough of you today
Ive had enough of you todaySo long, so long
So long, [Incomprehensible]Im getting lost before I get found out
Im getting old before my time and its too lateSo shut up, Ill give up when I want to
Just shut up, Im not listening to you
Say anything cause it dont mean nothing
Ive had enough of you todaySo shut up, Ill give up when I want to
Just shut up, Im not listening to you
Say anything cause it dont mean nothing
Ive had enough of you today
Ive had enough of you today
Ive had enough of you today
