

Losing Hold

Argent

Losing hold
Everything just falls away
It's wrong that you should have to stay
If you wanna go

It's clear to me
From everything you do, somehow
Can't hear just a word, right now
Lost in all you say

I'm losing hold
And my fingers slide
I see you slowly close your eyes on me
I'll keep mine open wide

Try to be Something I'm not made to be
I see the fear inside of me
In shadows of your face

Close to you
I cling to every word you say
Watching 'till you steal away
Walking from my life

I'm losing hold
And my fingers slide
I watch you slowly take the days from me
I keep the nights in mind

I'm losing hold
And my fingers slide
I watch you slowly take the day from me
I need my aim too high

I'm losing hold
And my fingers slide
I see you slowly close your eyes on me
I'll keep mine open wide

Losing hold
Everything just falls away
It's wrong that you should have to stay
If you wanna go»¿
