

Embrace

Kore

I'm holdin' you
I don't know what you want
I don't hear what you said
 Truth behind the lies
'Cause I can't see what's in your head
 And spread your wings and fly
 Out in a brave new world
 Let this be my prayer
To keep you safe when I'm not there
 Can we love and live apart?
I don't know, no, I don't know
 How can we divide the heart?
I don't know, no, I don't know
And when the night falls, and when the sky falls
 I long for your embrace
And in the cold night, under the street light
 I long for your embrace
 Livin' separate lives
I have faith in you, away from you
 Like a lonely child
 I will hang on every word
 Embrace
 Through the mists of time
 Lovers can be friends
The power of the human heart
The secrets in the souls of men
 All my blessings in disguise
I don't know, no, I don't know
 Reunited we will rise
I don't know, no, I don't know
And when the night falls, and when the sky falls
 I long for your embrace
And in the cold night, under the street light
 I long for your embrace
 Livin' separate lives
I have faith in you, away from you
 Like a lonely child
 I will hang on every word
And when the night falls, and when the sky falls

I long for your embrace
Another daybreak, another heartache
I long for your embrace
Livin' separate lives
Away from you
Embrace
Embrace the lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely, lonely life
Lonely days and nights
We can live our life
Embrace
Embrace with our separate lives
Embrace, embrace
The lonely, lonely lives
Lonely days and nights
I will never send away
Embrace, embrace
Embrace the child inside
