Sweet Hell

Gin Wigmore

Sitting out here in the sun

Played my heart like 21

Spend my time all crying

Cos I just forget to laughNow everyone around me

Is just always trying to sell me

On the notion that you're not the one

That I deserve to haveBut if you'd just clean up your actTell me what you mean by thatMaybe would should dance one more time

Whoa (Yeah!)[Chorus]

Sweet hell

I'm a little lonely in this tore up town

Sweet hell

Won't you come and find me in this big ole house

Lock the door

So we can bury these bones on the floor

Oh, sweet hell

I'm a little lonely, baby, where are youWell, I got some roses at the door

But who they're from and who they're for

Might just need explaining

So go on and get to that Well, I can't believe you act like that Well, I can't believe I want you back Maybe would should dance one more time

Whoa (Yeah!)[Chorus]Whoa

Whoa

Whoa

Whoa

Whoa

Whoa

WhoaSweet hell

I'm a little lonely in this tore up townSweet hell

Won't you come and find me in this big ole house, I said nowSweet hell

I'm a little lonely in this tore up town

Sweet hell

Won't you come and find me in this big ole house (I said now)

Sweet hell

I'm a little lonely in this tore up town

Sweet hell

Won't you come and find me in this big ole house (I said)

Sweet hell (Yeah!)

I'm a little lonely in this tore up town (I said)

Sweet hell Won't you come and find me in this big ole house (I said) [To Fade]
