It's Heaven to Me

Isaac Hayes

It's heaven to me when you're near
And i can see those lovely angel eyes
So tenderly inviting me to the land of your desiresIt's heaven to me when you speak
The sound of music fills my soul
Melody that hypnotizes me echoing softly
It grows and growsIt's heaven to me when our lips touch
It intoxicates my mind
My breath almost abandons me
My head spins uncontrollably so unaware of space or timeIt's heaven to me when our trembling bodies melt in unity
Ten thousand stars explode
I'm high as i can go lovin' you
Feeling free
