

Mean and Evil

B.B. King

You're throwin' it all away
Everything we've been livin' for
All the promises that were made
They all have gone and flown away
You locked me out and let your new love come in
Now you are makin' it with my closest friend
Fussin' and fightin' Baby, where have you been?
Yea, I get the message that you clearly send
You're so mean and evil
You're so mean
You're so mean and evil
You're so mean
I saw you at the place where we used to go
Showin' it off with the lights down low
Telling your lover about eternity
How soon you forget that's what you once told me
Your sweet talkin' made me go for it
Now you've got someone else on the top of your list
Like the wind that's blowin' free
Suddenly you've changed, turned your back on me
You're so mean and evil
You're so mean
An' you're so mean and evil
You're so mean
Your sweet talkin' made me go for it
Now you've got someone else at the top of your list
Like the wind that's blowin' free
Suddenly you've changed, turned your back on me
You're so mean and evil
You're so mean
You're so mean and evil
You're so mean
You're so mean and evil
You're mean
You're so mean
You're mean and evil
You're so mean and
You know you're mean, mean, mean and evil
You're mean
