Monsters

Angus Stone

Billy was a train, driving man

He went from one side to the other side of town

He went to bed with the light

He went to bed with the light

Ride on

He found his struggle with the wind
Something we never, came to understand
He felt lost, in the dark
Even when there was someone, he felt apart

Alone Alone

Cause in the, dark
There's monsters, they cry alone
They're waiting
For you to come along, and play
For you to come along, and play

He made his way to the liquor store Couldn't help but notice, the man at the door Yeah he did, he caught his eye He said sir, please a nickel, before I die

> Alone Alone

Cause in the, dark
There's monsters, they cry alone
They're waiting
For you to come along, and play
For you to come along, and play
And play
For you to come along, and play
And play

Cause in the, the dark
There's monsters, they cry alone
They're waiting
For you to come along, and play

Cause were monsters at heart
At heart, at heart
There's monsters, in their hearts
Their hearts

For you to come along and play

And play

For you to come along

And play

Billy was a train driving man He got lost, some place in the wind
