Hey Now Girl

Phantom Planet

Well let me tell you I have seen
A monster age of seventeen
Who'll let you in to kick you out
And knows what love is all aboutWell hey now girl, I see you walkin' by
A long ago you used to stop and talk
Now you just wink your eye
And I'm surprisedYou look all grown up
A champagne glass next to a paper cup
I stopped you just to say it
Hey now girlHer tongue is black haven't you heard
Her mutter those three dirty words
For all those foolish boys to hear
Like a siren bringin' ships so nearWell, hey now girl, I see you walkin' by
And I remember how you used to smile
Or how hard you used to try
It's in your eyesAnd I'm in a trance
A winter chill next to a spring romance
I stopped you just to say it
Hey now girl, well, hey now girlWell, hey now girl, well, hey now girl
Who let you out into this world?
Hey now girl
