A Pirates Prayer

Zao

Marked to be alone And my eyes are closed Drown and separate Sakes of discernmentWalk with the broken pieces They do not say a wordMarked to be alone And my eyes are closed Drown and separate Sakes of discernmentThey speak not a word to the broken sea They speak not a word to the broken sea Not burnt by the fire or pulled by the flood Not burnt by the fireThey come to rest In crimson pools of blood Guided by the wind Not burnt by the fire Not pulled by the flood They come to restBut they, they go So we rideBut the candle burns alone It guides us safely home But the candle burns alone It guides us safely homeBut the candle burns alone It guides us safely home But the candle burns alone It guides us safely homeBut the candle burns alone It guides us safely home But the candle burns alone It guides us safely homeBut the candle burns alone It guides us safely home But the candle burns alone It guides us safely homeBut the candle burns alone It guides us safely home But the candle burns alone It guides us safely homeBut the candle burns alone It guides us safely home But the candle burns alone It guides us safely homeBut the candle burns alone It guides us safely home

But the candle burns alone
