Drive You Home

Parachute

It's funny how, even now you still support me
After all of the things that I've done
You're so good to me, waiting patiently
And isn't it sad that you still have to ask if I care?
I never said I was perfect
But I can take you away
Walk on shells tonight
Can't do right tonight
And you can't say a word
'Cause I leap down your throat
So uptight am I
I never said I was perfect
But I can drive you home
I got down on myself working too hard
Driving myself to death, trying to beat out the faults in my head
What a mess I've made, sure we all make mistakes
But they see me so large that they think I'm immune to the pain
Walk on shells tonight
And you can't say a word
'Cause I leap down your throat
So uptight am I
I'm praying for a miracle
But I won't hold my breath
I never said I was perfect
But can you take me home?
