

Haven't Tried It

Piebald

I haven't tried it, but I think I've quite decided I won't wake you when you're dead
And if you mind them you can just go out and find them
Take all their stuff and pave over the land
Great communicator no time to wait you are no waiter
Or should I say you won't save anything
If you find a way out that will never do somehow
Handshakes ill-fated ownership that you created
You better watch that face that you've got on Charming wasichu it is not so nice to meet you
Evolution doesn't stop right here or now
