

I Lit A Candle

Honey Davis

I asked a question but the answer committed suicide

I wrote a song but it cried all night

I lit a candle but my speakers blew it out

I had a dream but a unicorn ate it

I screamed and screamed but my echos fell on silence i----- well I made love to a woman but she went back into the mirror

I made a baby but it grew up and took my place

I died but nothing changed.
