Wonderful World

Zucchero

I tell ya brother, man shit happens
By the way, howzit with you?
Check out the kid, finger on the button
Oh yeah it's a wonderful world, huh
Got no desire, huh, to desire
Hey jack, ain't that a trip?
And you madam, standing there for hire
Oh yeah, where's your wonderful world?
I'll be leaving in the morning
Far away from you
Yes I'm taking that step
I'm gonna jump in the blue
Falling, ending my depression
It's calling, oh my obsession
There might be days, when I think it's better
Hey babe, like you want me to be
Pull the chain, down goes the water
Oh yeah, it's a wonderful world
I'll be leaving in the morning
Nothing left to do
Yes I'm taking that step
I'm gonna jump in the blue

Falling, ending my depression
It's calling, oh my obsession
I'll be gone with the morning sun
Far away from you
Yes I'm taking that step
I'm gonna jump in the blue
A giant step in the blue
Oh I'm leaving in the morning
Yes I'm taking that step
I'm gonna jump in the blue
Falling, ending my depression
It's coming, I can feel the vibration
Falling, ending my depression
It's calling, give me wings
Give me my liberation

I been lonely lord
A final jump in the blue
I been lonely lord
[Incomprehensible]I can't take it no more
I been lonely, lonely
A final jump in the blue
