

Shadows of the Night

Pat Benatar

We're runnin' with the shadows of the night
So baby, take my hand, it'll be alright
Surrender all your dreams to me tonight, they'll come true in the end
You said it won't work, it's a cold world when you keep it all to yourself
I said you can't hide on the inside, all the pain you've ever felt Run from my heart, but baby don't look back, 'cos we got nobody else
We're runnin' with the shadows of the night
So baby, take my hand, it'll be alright
Surrender all your dreams to me tonight, they'll come true in the end
You know sometimes it feels like it's all movin' way too fast
Use every alibi, in words you deny, that love ain't meant to last
You can cry tough baby, it's alright
You can let me down easy, but not tonight
We're runnin' with the shadows of the night
So baby, take my hand, it'll be alright
Surrender all your dreams to me tonight, they'll come true in the end
We're runnin' with the shadows of the night
So baby, take my hand, it'll be alright
Surrender all your dreams to me tonight, they'll come true in the end
And now the hands of time are standin' still Midnight angel won't you say you will
We're runnin' with the shadows of the night
So baby, take my hand, it'll be alright
Surrender all your dreams to me tonight, they'll come true in the end
We're runnin' with the shadows of the night
So baby, take my hand, it'll be alright
Surrender all your dreams to me tonight, they'll come true in the end
We're runnin' with the shadows of the night
So baby, take my hand, it'll be alright
Surrender all your dreams to me tonight, they'll come true in the end
