

True Believer (feat. Chris Martin of Coldplay)

Avicii

I wasn't always the brightest, 'till I learn how to dance
You got me thinking love will come around but you never gave me a chance
A pride I've been the tallest, 'till I learn how to jump
You got me thinking love will come around but you never say I'm the one
If I could make you, make you fall in love with me
If I could make you, make you fall in love
Wish I could make you, make you fall in love
Baby love will come around if you want it enough
Baby love will come around if you want it enough
Love will come around
Baby love will come around
I wasn't always the brightest, they say you only live once
So, you got me thinking, I'm so glad I found you
Life's what you make it, so here it comes, we go
If I could make you, make you fall in love with me
If I could make you, make you fall in love
Wish I could make you, make you fall in love
Baby love will come around if you want it enough
Baby love will come around if you want it enough
If you're a true believer
If you're a true believer
Love will come around
