

Ohhh (Private Party)

Sarah Connor

Don't miss this invitation boy I'm touching on my body
I'm thinking 'bout you beside me
I can't wait for you to get here tonight
Boy, I'm so excited
I really hope you don't mind
That I started without you but I got tired Of waiting for you
'Cause I called you 'bout an hour ago
What's taking you so long?
What else can I do?
So I went ahead and started the show
Boy, hurry up and come home Ohhh, I wanna get it started
Ohhh, you and me private party
Ohhh, boy, you're about to miss this invitation
To amuse yourself up in my park, come on and start Ohhh, get it started
Ohhh, my private party
Ohhh, don't miss this invitation, boy
Because this party's just about to start I'm here anticipating
The changes that we'll be making
So I got the mirror facing the bed
Exploring all my regions
While all the time I keep thinking
That I'd rather have you with me instead I'm waiting for you, boy
It's been about an hour ago
What's taking you so long?
What else can I do?
So I went ahead and started the show
Hurry baby, come home Ohhh, I wanna get it started
Ohhh, you and me private party
Ohhh, boy, you're about to miss this invitation
To amuse yourself up in my park, come on and start Ohhh, get it started
Ohhh, my private party
Ohhh, baby, don't miss this invitation, boy
Because this party's just about to start Ohhh, I wanna get it started
Ohhh, you and me private party
Ohhh, boy, you're about to miss this invitation
To amuse yourself up in my park, come on and start Ohhh, get it started
Ohhh, my private party
Ohhh, don't miss this invitation, boy
Because this party's just about to start
