Rilkean Heart

Cocteau Twins

Rilkean heart, I looked for you to give me
Transcendent experiences
To transport me out of self and aloneness
Sent alienationInto a sense of oneness and connection, ecstatic and magical
I became a junkie for it
I come looking for the next high
And I'm sorry, I've been putting the search on the wrong placeI understand that you're confused
Feeling overwhelmed
Well, that's a feeling state from then
The realityBut becoming truly self-reliant
And become connected with something beyond me
That is where I have to go
I'm so sorry I've been putting the search on the wrong place
