

Destroyer

Ekos Quartet

He spent his life a silent sentinel for all to fear
He walks, he talks, he thinks, he feels but no dare go near
    He takes in all he sees, nothing escapes his gaze
And when he strikes, he strikes for right, a glorious sight
    Destroyer, destroyer
    Destroyer, he's in town
He came to be from a grand mistake, a mystical charade
    Created to decide the good and bring repercussive aid
As awareness filled his fame and he examined those who leered
    And he cleaved the air with his fiery stare rend all those there
    Destroyer, destroyer
    Destroyer, he's in town
A day will come you'll be drawn into the center of your town
    And come upon a mass of steel that cracks the very ground
    Prepare to meet your judge, don't think to run away
    Just pray your face holds no disgrace for the deadly ace
    Destroyer, destroyer
    Destroyer, he's in
    Destroyer, destroyer
    Destroyer, he's in town
    Oh, he's in town
    You'd better stay out of his fucking way
    He's gonna kick your ass
    Yeah, destroyer
