

Lift

Radiohead

This is the place
Sit down, you're safe now
You've been stuck in a lift
We've been trying to reach you, Thom
This is the place
It won't hurt ever again The smell of air conditioning
The fish are belly up
Empty all your pockets
Because it's time to come home This is the place
Remember me?
I'm the face you always see
You've been stuck in a lift
In the belly of a whale
At the bottom of the ocean The smell of air conditioning
The fish are belly up
Empty all your pockets
Because it's time to come home The smell of air conditioning
The fish are belly up
Let it go Today is the first day
Of the rest of your days So lighten up, squirt
